Dear Mr Patel

Thank you for your email request for information, which we received on 17 July 2014 concerning Radicalisation/Extremism at Lea Forest Academy.

This request is being handled under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

The proprietor of Lea Forest Academy is Academies Enterprise Trust. Academies Enterprise Trust is subject to the requirements of the Freedom of Information Act and holds the information you requested.

- 1) Has your school (teachers and/or governors) received any radicalisation/extremism/prevent training from the Prevent team or any other organisation? If so when was the training done and by which organisation? (please provide the date and organisation name).

The Headteacher attended a training session at Montgomery Academy on 28 April 2014. The training was delivered by the Prevent Team. The Headteacher then feedback this information to all staff and reiterated this at the staff training day on 1 September 2014. All other staff have undertaken Hayes Child Protection training online which includes a section on Extremism and Radicalisation.

- 2) Does your school have a policy on tackling radicalisation/extremism - if so when was this put in place? (Please attach a copy).

It is included in the Child Protection Policy which was last updated in June 2014.

- 3) Please attach a copy of your safeguarding policy

Attached.

- 4) How many referrals of students have been made to the Prevent team under the Channel Programme during this academic year, September 2013 to July 2014?

None.

- 5) Are the boys and girls in any of your classes separated for any lessons? (Please specify for what purpose).

No.

- 6) Please provide any emails sent/received between the school and Ofsted/Department for Education/Birmingham Council about any matters related to the Trojan Horse plot between March 1st and the date you answer this request.

None.

If you are unhappy with the way your request for information has been handled, you can request a review by writing to:
